Alliteration is when words with the same beginning sound are repeated. And “Wishy Washy Washer Woman” is full of alliteration.

Example: The wishy washy washer woman whistled while wildly walking.

Complete the sentences below so they have alliteration.

1. Four fireflies ________________________________.
2. Jenny’s giant ________________________________.
3. Loud lions ________________________________.
4. Slippery snowflakes __________________________.
5. The glowing, glistening ________________________.

Write your own sentences that have alliteration.

1. Write a sentence that has alliteration with the letter H.
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________.
2. Write a sentence that has alliteration with the letter M.
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________.
3. Write a sentence that has alliteration with your name.
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________.
4. Write a sentence that has alliteration with your favorite animal.
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________.